

Q

They asked me how I knew
That there was no Q.
Sadly I replied,
“It comes as no surprise –
Scholars do tell lies!”

They asked me, “was it true
There had been no Q?”
I said “if they tried
To cope with Q’s demise,
The truth they’d realise.”

They wonder what to do
If there is no Q;
I marvel how the wise
Fail to recognise
Falsehood in disguise.

Still, searching after Q
Anything might do –
“Try and visualise
That virtual’s the prize
When smoke gets in your eyes!”
